Counselling Services

We provide high quality one-to-one counselling to adults and young people, aged 13 to 21, with a variety of mental health needs.

Our service is an organisational member of the British Association of Counselling and Psychotherapy and our counsellors adhere to and work within the BACP Ethical Framework for the counselling professions.

Counselling for Adults

We work with people who are experiencing anxiety, depression, loss, relationship issues, difficulties with anger, recovery from traumatic events or are struggling to cope with the pressures of life.

Who is this suitable for?

We offer counselling to people over the age of 18 who live in Bucks. Our service may not be suitable for some people, but this will be decided between the counsellor and the individual during the initial appointment.

We can also work with organisations to provide counselling for employees. For more information, please contact counselling@bucksmind.org.uk

What can I expect?

Face-to-face and online appointments (using a secure link) are available. You will be offered an initial appointment to ensure that our service is suitable for them. Following this, you will be allocated a dedicated counsellor and offered weekly counselling sessions, each lasting 50 minutes. Please be aware that, due to high demand for this service, there is a waiting list for this service.

We also offer a Rapid Access service for adults, providing more prompt appointments. Please see details below.

“Outstanding, helpful professionals that truly care. I would recommend 10/10; excellent organisation.”

Fees

Buckinghamshire Mind's Counselling Service is self-funding and, for the service to continue, it is necessary to charge a fee. For assessment and per counselling session, a fee of between £25 and £40 will be agreed.

How can I access this service?
